Visit to Charterhouse & Afternoon Tea at Cafe Rouge

14:15, Saturday 29th February 2020 The Charterhouse, Charterhouse Square London EC1M 6AN

Our Chairman, Michael Khan, Esquire, invites you and your guests to join him on this tour, there is limited availability and members are urged to reply as soon as possible to reserve a space.

Thomas Sutton was one of the wealthiest men in Jacobean England when just before his death in 1611 he made provisions for the creation of a School for boys and a hospital for pensioners on the site of a Carthusian Monastery which became vacant the century before when Henry VIII abolished the monasteries; pupils have been known as Carthusians ever since. Though the School moved to Surrey in the 19th Century, the Hospital, in the old sense of place of hospitality or almshouse, remains in London to this day.

Come and discover more about the Charterhouse with a behind the scenes tour led by one of the resident Brothers. These tours are given from the perspective of each individual Brother and therefore no two tours are the same. They provide an in-depth look at the long history of the site and the lifestyle of the Brothers through the centuries and are a unique opportunity to learn more about the nuances of this fascinating historical gem hidden in the heart of London.

Cost: £45 per person - This price includes entry to the Charterhouse, a tour by one of the Brothers and Afternoon Tea including a glass of Prosecco at Cafe Rouge St Pauls
